

Let's talk business!

Scan me

Specs sheet

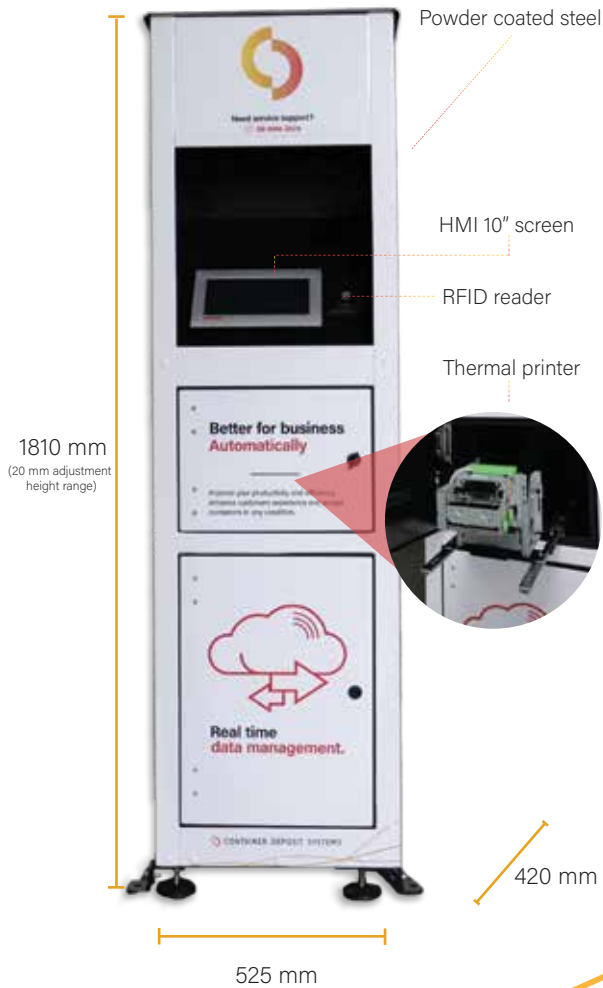

Manual Input Station (MIS)

A convenient and efficient way for manual count-and-sort depots to securely input data from customer returns.

Synchronised with the state specific scheme to send data in real time, classified into the required commodities.

ph 1300 375 698

www.containerdepositsystems.com.au

- Electronic tracing of transactions reduces the need for hardcopy bookkeeping
- Increased depot security: reduces the requirement of cash handling
- Ability to separate data into the required commodities
- Real time data captured and sync with the state specific scheme
- Ability to process customer bagdrops
- RFID access technology

 0.22 sqm

 10 Amp @230VAC 1 phase

 47.45 Kg

 max 90%

 LAN counting data transmission
VPN remote

 2~50°